DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

SUSPENSION OF JUDGE ALDRICH.

We published a few days since the remarks of Judge Aldrich, of South Carolina, in declining to violate the jury laws of the State in obedience to the order of Gen. Canby. We learn that for this act he has been suspended. The Charleston Mercury describes the last official act of Judge Aldrich and gives his remarks upon leaving his seat, which so strikingly illustrate the character of the upright Judge and incorruptible man, that we publish them with pleasure.

The Judge was escorted to the Court room at Barnwell Court House, by the Sheriff. After the warmest greetings from the members of the bar, he directed the Clerk to call over the grand and petit jurors, but not to swear them in. The Judge addressed them, alluding to the sad memories called up by the deaths of so many members of the bar, and referring to the present condition of the country. He then read an order of General Canby in regard to juries, showing how grossly it violated the laws of the State which he had sworn to support, and which conscientious and constitutional reasons compelled him not to enforce. He next read an order, which had just been served upon him, suspending and not permitting him to hold any Courts in his circuit. The Judge then addressed the juries on the Reconstruction Acts and the powers of the Military Commanders, which do not include his suspension. Rising from his seat, he said:

GENTLEMEN: In forced obedience to the command of Brevet Major Gen. Ed. R. S Canby, I lay down my office for the present. Personally, I feel no mortification at this indignity, because it has been put upon me for the conscientious discharge of my constitutional duty. I did not receive my office from him, or from any power which he represents, and he has no right to remove me. But it almost breaks my heart to witness the humiliation of this proud old State, we all love so well, in my poor person. Be of good cheer, it is only for a time. I see the dawn of a brighter day. The great heart of the American people beats true to constitutional liberty. The time is at hand when we will be relieved from the tyranny and insolence of military despotism.

Gentlemen of the juries, for the present farewell; but if God spares my life, I will yet preside in this Court, a South Carolina Judge, whose ermine is unstained.

My brethren of the Bar, be patient; be loyal to the constitution; be true to yourselves.

Mr. Clerk, as I am not permitted to perform any judicial act, you and the Sheriff will issue to the jurors their pay certificates as if the Judge had not attended.

Mr. Sheriff, let the Court stand adjourned while the voice of justice is stifled.

RESIGNATION OF JUDGE HANDY, OF MISSISSIPPI.

It was announced by telegraph a few days since that Judge A. H. Handy, Chief Judge of the Supreme Court of Mississippi, had resigned on account of the subordination to the military in that quarter. In his letter to the Governor of that State he assigns his reasons in full for the course he has taken. Judge Handy is a native of Maryland, and we understand intends returning to this State and reside in this City. A Canton (Miss.) paper says that his resignation leaves a void in the judiciary of the State, which it fears will not soon be filled by a man of such sterling integrity and patriotism, and one who is so popular throughout the State. The following extract from his letter concisely sets forth his idea of a free and unfettered tribunal, and expresses his views of his duty to himself and his country, under the present supremacy of military force over civil law:—Baltimore Sun.

"I have been educated to believe a free and untrammelled judiciary to be the great bulwark of civil liberty in free governments—its protection alike against popular excitement and the usurpation of those in political power. Unmoved by popular tumult, and unawed by fear of control from those holding the reins of political government, in its grave and solemn action it holds the scales of justice with a firm and unwavering hand, dispensing law and right to all alike; and, whilst sustaining the government in the exercise of its legitimate powers, at the same time having the right and the power to stay its hand whenever raised to invade the constitutional rights of the humblest citizen. In order to the fulfilment of those high functions, it is manifest that the supreme judiciary of a State must be perfectly free and independent, without fear of control, except by that salutary influence which proceeds from provisions of the organic law made to secure official fidelity. Of such a tribunal I am proud to have been a member for the last fourteen years. But now it is apparent that its character and dignity cannot be maintained, and that its powers must be held and exercised in subordination to the behests of a military commander. And though not as yet positively put into exercise by this officer, yet the extraordinary power is asserted; and that is, in my view, such an invasion of the legitimate powers of the judiciary as to place it in a condition of military duress, in which I cannot seem to acquiesce by acting under it."

THE TWO RACES IN VIRGINIA.

The election returns show with painful distinctness that the negroes have drawn a deep-red blood line between themselves and the whites, and that with them principles are nothing, color everything. Under the leadership of a few pestilent and infamous whites, who will, no doubt, live long enough to suffer in this world the punishment due to their crimes, the negroes (with few, very few exceptions) have arrayed themselves in hostility against the whites, and have left us no choice but to regard them henceforward as enemies.

In the language of the Charlottesville Chronicle—

"Every conceivable effort has been made here to harmonize the two races. Every form of overture has been made to the blacks by the whites. Every appliance was resorted to to carry the election. All has been in vain. Drilled like an army, manœuvred like a body of disciplined troops, obeying an order from the central league like a sign from a marshal's baton, the negroes have delivered their vote like a concentrated broadside."

To show the abjectness and completeness of their slavery to Hunnicutt and the leagues, they have defeated consistent Union men like Judge Rives and Mr. Stearns, simply because they were not of the Hunnicutt stamp and were gentlemen.

The negroes have carried the State, and will frame a Constitution to suit the views of their Master Hunnicutt. All that we can do is to try to vote it down.

Can the white race at the North tolerate negro ascendancy in the land of Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Marshall and Henry? Is the Old Dominion to be degraded into a Hayti! Are Hunnicuttism and negroism to rule that ancient Commonwealth that gave States, statesmen and renown to the American Union!—Richmond Whig.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

ASSETS $7,000,000.

THIS COMPANY ISSUES TEN YEAR NON-FORFEITING ENDOWMENT POLICIES, contracting to pay the amount insured at death or the specified time.

An endowment policy presents the double attraction of providing for one's family or other dependents, in case he should be cut off before a specified age, or of securing to himself independence, in case he attains the age. Thus insuring for ten years, a note for one half of the cost will be taken by paying six per cent interest.

This plan gives, in addition to all the advantages of life insurance, a safe and convenient INVESTMENT for one's savings, till they have accumulated to a definite amount; which he receives in one sum at the specified time.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Flour, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

ELECTION TICKETS!!

We were misled by others, without giving it any reflection, in supposing that the Election Tickets should be printed on both sides. It is evident that this is not only not necessary, but that it is objectionable, inconvenient and more expensive than necessary.

The tickets should be printed on one side, thus:

For a Convention.
(or, as the case may be,)
Against a Convention.

(Here print the name or names of delegates.)

Such tickets, for the Conservative candidates, will be provided for $1.25 cash per 1,000, postage paid, at this office. Orders are invited. The cash must accompany the orders.

SECRET ORGANIZATIONS.—THEIR EFFECTS IN VIRGINIA.—COL. BOMFORD'S ORDER.

We stated on yesterday our positive conviction that there was no secret organization in North Carolina, or in the South, other than the "Loyal Leagues," "Heroes of America," or "Red Strings." Whether these are distinctive organizations, or whether they are all branches of one and the same concern, we have no means of knowing. There is no organization of any kind in this State, composed exclusively of whites, secret or otherwise,—much less one which is hostile to the Federal government, or which is "composed of persons bearing arms or intended to be armed, or who assemble, parade, patrol, drill, &c."

We asserted, also, on yesterday, that we had heard of colored, or mixed white and colored, organizations, supposed to be connected with the Union League, which were engaged in these practices and had excited and frightened whole neighborhoods by disorderly demonstrations. The Winston Sentinel only last week called attention to the fact that at least one company of negroes was organized, in the vicinity of that town, which was being drilled and carried through the regular evolutions of military tactics. We have, of course, no authority for saying that Col. Bomford's recent excellent and timely order has been evoked by recent occurrences in the lower part of this County, but we do know that representations have been made to him concerning them, and that he has instituted vigorous and efficient measures for their investigation and suppression. What are these occurrences? We are not yet prepared to give all the facts, but it is certain that regular organizations of negroes have been drilling, in the vicinity of Holly Springs, in this County, with drums and banners, and, there is good reason to believe, with concealed weapons; that they have been turbulent in their behavior, and have made many threats; that they have greatly alarmed the vicinage, and spread terror among the peaceable and unarmed whites in that section. Similar demonstrations have been made across the line in Harnett,—the two bands being in collusion. It is said that they have a common point of rendezvous in the latter County; and that the League or organization of Wake, in view of measures taken by the diligent Post Commander at Fayetteville to suppress the proceedings in Harnett, publicly proclaimed their purpose to go over into that County, on Saturday, if it was necessary to "go through fire and blood" in order to do so. What became of their threat we have not heard; but we are sure that means for its prevention were adopted. In view of these facts, it is but just to Col. Bomford to suppose that his order has been elicited on account of the condition of affairs mentioned. We learn that Col. Bomford is being roundly abused by certain of the Radical leaders for his course in this matter, and we are informed that the last Standard contains an article on the subject, which, while professing to eulogize the Colonel for his Order, is, in reality, evidently an ironical endorsement of his commendable vigilance in the premises.

The state of things in Virginia on occasion of the recent election affords undoubted evidence of the fact that these Leagues are under the most incendiary auspices, that they contemplate violence, that they are prepared for it, and that they will stop short of nothing in their efforts to gain power and seize the governments in the South, for the oppression of the large majority of the whites. We group, for instance, the following facts from one paper, —the Petersburg Index:

"At Sturdivant's Shop, in Prince George county, the negroes attended the polls armed almost to a man with U. S. rifles and pistols, and assumed complete control of affairs.

At Polar Mount precinct, in Greenville, and at Hicksford, in the same county, a similar state of affairs obtained, and many voters were thereby deterred from casting their suffrages. At each of these places it was perfectly impossible for a colored man to vote the Conservative ticket.

At Henry precinct, in Sussex, the Radicals assembled in heavy force, all armed, and exercised violent supervision of the voting.

At Smoky Ordinary, in Brunswick county, an armed negro stood at the entrance leading to the colored poll, and notified each voter as he passed that a Conservative vote would ensure his death.

At Brunswick Court-House, there had been collected a number of guns in possession of the county. Just previous to the election they were seized by order of Lieut. Kimball, the military officer commanding in that locality, who had them cleaned, and distributed with ammunition among the negroes.—The result was of course the same related of other places. Many whites were deterred entirely from seeking the polls, and no negro was allowed to enter any but a Radical ticket. In all these cases, except the last, the arms in the hands of the negroes are reported to have been those of the Government, and mostly new."

Where is all this to end? Many well-meaning white men have been deceived into joining these Leagues by false representations; but, as their eyes are being opened to their purposes and doings, they are leaving them in horror and disgust. We have no word of harshness for the colored men for going into these associations originally. They, too, were deluded and duped by bad and mischievous white men. But they have been warned as to the results,—of the certain ruin to themselves and destruction to the country, which must ensue as the consequence of the teachings which are there inculcated, and which have been carried into flagrant practice in Virginia, and incipiently in this State. If they persist in their connection with them, and in listening to the counsels of the lawless men who control and direct them, the consequences of the mischiefs which may follow will be upon their own heads!

THE VOTE IN THE STATE.—It is plain that not more than two thirds of the white registered vote in Virginia has been cast.—The people, contemplating the machinery instituted for their humiliation, became disgusted and utterly indifferent to consequences. We trust by the next time they are called upon to vote they will take heart and make an effort to save the State.—Richmond Dispatch.

The above statement is not only true of Virginia, but it is true also of every Southern State which has voted since the war.—One third of the white voters of the South have been uninterested in the political situation, and have failed to go to the polls.

What can arouse them from this indifference? If they remain from the polls and neglect to vote for delegates to the State Convention, can they be rallied to vote on the new Constitution? We admonish all Conservative men, that everything depends upon getting the people to the polls. They are honest, patriotic and loyal to the Constitution and the Union. If they can be induced to vote, they will very generally vote right, but, without a strong, united effort on the part of every Conservative man, the Radicals will triumph in every Southern State. Mark what we say.

Even in North Carolina, with nearly 30,000 majority of white registered voters, unless the Conservative men move in harmony and in concert—if the people yield themselves up to be divided by opposition to this or that man, or this or that issue,—the cause of Conservatism is gone! We have no fear of defeat, if the Conservatives will stand shoulder to shoulder, and go to the polls. The masses of the people are Conservative and true. If they move together they can defeat Radicalism in the State; otherwise, their defeat is certain.

THE RICHMOND Whig, commenting on the result in that city, says: "We had success and deserved it, and it is no fault of ours that we did not hold it. The responsibility rests on Gen. Schofield. It was by his order that the polls were kept open yesterday, and it was in consequence of that order that the ceaseless stream of negroes concentrated at the polls in Monroe. The polls might be kept open a month, and negro voters would still crowd them. What matters it that the real John Smith, who was registered, cannot be found; another one assumes the name and votes. They came from every quarter and encamped here, determined to carry the election."

IT SHOULD be remembered that the only disturbances that occurred during the elections in Virginia were brought about by Hunnicutt men. Had they not been promptly checked by the military and the police, the terrors and excesses of the days of voting would have been unendurable. We have white men in this State who rejoice over the election of Hunnicut, and whose teachings have sown the same seeds of turbulence and lawlessness.

THE RADICAL theory of a "Republican form of government" is to give the negro the ballot, in order that he may protect himself against the white man, and to take it from the white man, in order that he may be under the negro's control. The Reconstruction plan of Congress has provided a subordinate position for the white race, and has taken good care that there shall be no equality between them.

On Wednesday night the negroes of Lynchburg, some three or four hundred in number, assembled on Church street and commenced firing rockets and squibs preparatory to a grand feu de joie over the election; but the police informed them that they must go outside the corporation limits, which they did and again commenced their noisy demonstrations, when the United States troops in the neighborhood ordered them to disperse and go to their homes. They refused, when the military charged bayonets on them and they scattered, helter-skelter, to their places of residence, and the city became quiet. The prompt action of the military in this instance is highly creditable, as it is just such assemblages as these which lead to disturbance of the public peace, and often to serious results.

Mrs. Lincoln's brothers, as is known, were in the Confederate army. The youngest of them started in April 1861, from New Orleans, as a private in the Chasseurs a Pied, and, being discharged for sickness at Richmond, in October of the same year returned to his home; but, though still suffering in health, he left a wife and two babies to join the Crescent regiment, in response to Beauregard's call, and fell at Shiloh. Another, Captain Davie Todd, started with Colonel Tom Taylor, of the First Kentucky Volunteers, and was also killed towards the end of the war. And third, Dr. Todd, served throughout as a distinguished surgeon.

A young Englishman, it is said "of wealth and culture," while making the tour of the United States lately, fell in love with one of the daughters of the soil, in fact one of the aborigines,—an Omaha squaw, and married her. "The next day," says the history of the case, "she got drunk and turned somersaults in the street." The young Englishman of wealth and culture is going home, to write a book about Life and Manners in America. We shall be better understood hereafter.

The Washington Evening Star was sold the other day for $125,000—a good price for a small sized paper.

STATE ITEMS.

——A Dr. Hart, of Newbern, who is connected with the Hospital of the Freedmen's Bureau, has received intelligence of the death of a relative, who has bequeathed to him the neat little sum of $25,000.

——The Danville Times gives the following pedigree of Gen. Sickles' "loyal student," to whom he referred in his speech in Philadelphia. This same Johnston is the man who, with the aid of Tourgee and others, has managed, by false representations, to procure the arrest and trial by Military Commission of the estimable Sheriff of Caswell, who was simply the agent of the violated law in holding the malefactor in confinement:

"The 'loyal student"—the "martyr"—referred to, is the notorious freebooter and desperado, of illegitimate birth, Bill Johnston, whose eyes first beheld day-light in the county of Rockingham, North Carolina, and whose loyalty consisted in his volunteering in a Rockingham company to fight Gen. Sickles and his "loyal" troops, and after serving in the Confederate army for some time, deserted and came back to Rockingham, where he joined a band of robbers and desperadoes, and distinguished himself much greater for crimes of the deepest dye than for his loyalty. House-breaking and robbery were some of his "amusements," and on one occasion he entered the house of old Mr. Moore in the darkness of the night, seized him, and leading him in the woods, tied him to a tree, and then robbed his house—taking $37 Confederate money as part of the booty.

Before or immediately after the war was over, he was arrested and held to account for the commission of crimes which, by the laws of North Carolina, forfeited his life.—About his person were found burglar's tools. Able counsel was assigned him by court, and such had been the extent of his lawlessness and rascality in Rockingham that he moved to have his case removed to and tried in Caswell County. It was granted. He had a fair trial; was convicted; the penalty of the law was death; that penalty was pronounced against him, and Gov. Worth subsequently pardoned him.—This is a brief statement of the "loyal student's" case over which Gen. Daniel E. Sickles seems to be weeping."

——The following removals are mentioned in the Wilmington papers: The firm of Willard Brothers have moved their stock to the stand formerly occupied by Messrs. E. Murray & Co., a few doors below their old house on North Water Street.

Messrs. O. G. Parsley and Co. have also moved from corner of Chesnut and Walnut Streets, to their new and handsome brick office on Water, between Chesnut and Mulberry Streets.

——Capt. Hugh L. Cole, formerly of Newbern, in this State, was married, on the 9th. instant, in St. George's Church, St. Catharines, Canada, to Miss Susan, eldest daughter of Geo. W. Tarleton, Esq., of Mobile, Alabama.

——The Grand Council of the Friends of Temperance will convene in Wilmington, on the 13th. prox. Gen. R. B. Vance, the President of the State Council, and Rev. W. B. Wellons, of the Supreme Council, are both expected to be present.

——We learn, from the Henderson Index, that, on the 12th. inst., Mr. Joseph P. Wilson, of Granville, under a fit of temporary insanity, committed suicide by hanging himself by means of a rope, to the limb of a tree. This is one of the unfortunate results of the late war, the losses which he sustained thereby seriously impairing his mind. He is said to have been a good honest man in all his dealings, and this rash act which terminated so fatally throws a pall of gloom over his numerous circle of friends and acquaintances. He leaves a large and interesting family to mourn his untimely death.

——C. S. Moring withdraws as a candidate for the Convention in Rowan. He couldn't "stand the pressure."

——The Asheville News chronicles another atrocious "Church outrage." It says:

"We are reliably informed that J. C. Stewart, a deposed Presbyterian Minister from Concord Presbytery, with an accomplice, on Sunday last, broke open the doors of the Church at Swannanoa, and held services therein, against the remonstrances of the congregation. Had Stewart made a respectful request for the use of the Church, and been refused, there might have been some slight palliation of the outrage, but he did not make any such a request, but claimed that the Church property at the South belonged to the Northern branch of the Church, and as he belonged to that branch, he would take possession of it. This he did in the face of the fact that the congregation at Swannanoa has a regular Minister of their own selection, and the further fact that the property is deeded to a Board of Trustees, who alone has control of it. We are informed that legal proceedings will be commenced against the perpetrators of the outrage."

——The Conservatives of Cabarrus held a meeting in Concord, on Tuesday last. They were ably addressed by W. H. Bailey, Esq., of Salisbury. Mr. Jno. Hileman was unanimously nominated as the Conservative candidate for the Convention, and accepted. Of Mr. H. the Press says:

"His friends are confident of his election by a large majority. He is highly spoken of by his neighbors, as being an honest man, an humble christian, a man of fine practical sense and always ready to do a good deed. His charity was proverbial during the war, to the poor of all classes, irrespective of color, politics or religion. We need the best men that can be found to represent the county in the coming Convention. Mr. Hileman's friends claim for him every element that constitutes a good man."

The New York Times gave a deserved rebuke a few days ago to those Washington correspondents who were manufacturing dispatches one day to have them contradicted the next. Enterprise in securing the news is a very diffirent thing from the coinage of sensation items. We have had several remarkable illustrations of news manufacture of late, the most recent being the report that Gen. Grant had replied in more Radical terms than he has ever before used to a letter addressed him by Dr. Lieber, on the termination of his duties as chief of the Bureau of Rebel Archives. General Grant simply acknowledged the receipt of the letter through an aide.

There is no impropriety in giving currency to the rumor, already rife in the newspapers, that the separation of Mr. and Mrs. Senator Sumner is really due to causes which would disfranchise the former in the event of the establishment of his favorite scheme of "Manhood Suffrage."

For the Sentinel.

BEHIND THE SCENES.

SCENE 4.

Enter X. P. G., Font and Col. Pluck.

X. P. G.—So I've whistled you back, Font; I knew I could do it. Neither you nor I can harbor malice. Mr. James H. Harris is a good go between. I knew he could pacify you.

Font.—Mister Jeams H. Harris! Something is due, I think, to former "position." Why do you always say in stark-naked fashion Graham and Worth and Vance and Bragg—and when you speak of the colored population it is the Rev. G. W. Broddie, Mister Galloway, Mister James H. Harris, and Mister Locket, and so on. And the Colonel here talks about "Bob Dick and Tom Settle" just as if they had always been niggers, and bed fellows with Tom, Dick and Harry.

X. P. G.—Oh, hush, Font, I don't always speak so of them. It is only when I speak to them. So "note the difference," as my Lord Coke says. But you are a little rebellious yet. You do not fully "accept the situation." The bottom rail is a top, now—ain't it?

Font.—Yes. And the fence is staked and ridered, and you are the rider, ha! ha! and a bold cavalier you are.

X. P. G.—When we make the new Constitution two shall ride.

Font.—Do you think the old wooly horse will be stiff enough in the back to carry double?

X. P. G.—Yes. We will have a Governor and a Lieutenant-Governor. Font, how would you like to ride behind me? You can hold on behind, can't you?

Font.—No, sir-ree! I scorn to be a tin cup tied to a dog's tail.

X. P. G.—You have been, and you need not ruffle your feathers.

Font.—A pretty spectacle we should be—a half dozen or more of the "Northern white element" peeping around with their squirt guns full of sperrits turpentine, letting fly at you en arriere. No, sir. I shall not follow you in that race. I shall never hold on behind. Never jingle at your tail, sir.

X. P. G.—Font, what's the name of the animal old Balaam split his trousers on? Tell me that.

Font.—In Latin, asinus; in French, ane, contracted from asne; in Spanish asno; in Italian asino; vulgarly called, in language which alone you understand—an ass.

X. P. G.—Balaam's ass was gifted with speech, I think.

Font.—Yes, and he talked sense.

X. P. G.—Which is more than you do, Font, sometimes.

Font.—I owe you one, Gus. What's the difference between Balaam's ass and yourself, Governor?

X. P. G.—I hope there is considerable difference, Font! But I give it up. You beat me on quips and quirks and conundrums. What is the difference?

Font.—I don't know any. He had more sagacity than you though. He saw danger ahead, and you do not. The ass in that case had more sense than the rider—ha! ha!

Colonel.—Come, come, gentlemen. You are becoming rather personal; and the sooner we "get shut" of this vulgar nonsense, the better. Let's change the subject. Governor, you were dreadfully persecuted in former times.

X. P. G.—Persecuted? I should think so. Colonel, before you came to protect us, once, in the dead of night, sir, a horribly cold night, sir, I was victimized, sir, hunted down, mobbed, sir, and—most awfully scared!

Colonel.—I have heard so, Governor, and my heart has bled for you. I pray you tell me the story.

X. P. G.—It's a long story, Colonel. You see, this sleepy old State was overwhelmingly Union in its sentiments, notwithstanding all my old preaching of the right of secession. And so long, I was sort o' Union myself, and sort o' not. But when Lincoln's proclamation came, the Union feeling was killed dead as a Scotch hearing. As saith the Scripture, a nation was born in a day.—There was a spontaneous conversion, as well as combustion, all over the old State. Then I pitched in with a rim, urged immediate separation, became a candidate for the Convention, signed the declaration dissolving the Union, with a new gold pen. Would you like to see it, Colonel?

Col.—Not just now.

X. P. G.—Well, we had a rousing time for a year or two. There was a wild hurra all over Sleepy Hollow. We all joined in, and I took the lead. The Standard was a power in the State then. Liberty or death was inscribed on its folds;

"Forever float that standard sheet!
Where is the foe but falls before it?"

Col.—Governor, you are becoming poetical—enthoused.

X. P. G.—Cant help it, Colonel. Those were glorious days! So we thought then, if we are a little sore on the subject now.—Joseph went to the war—and he fought, and fought, Colonel. Julius Cæsar was a baby to that boy! He was finally captured at Roanoke Island. Poor fellow, his big heart broke then. Zeb Vance—Union to the backbone, caved in at last—and he went to the wars. He was a Colonel, and fought a little. I liked Zeb. He was a funny fellow. So, I started his name for Governor—I was the first to do it—as I had been first to nominate Jefferson Davis for the Confederate Presidency—so-called. Zeb's nomination took like wildfire, and he was chosen almost by acclamation. I did not think he would do much as Governor—and believed he would be willing, in two years, to "get shut" of the business, and go back to the army. And then would be my time. But he deceived every body, and somebow governed so well, that he gathered around him the hearts of our whole people. I believe he practices witchcraft to make folks love him. But now or never, thinks I to myself—and so I pitched in against Vance for his second term—and then I began to slacken and slacken in my hurraing for the Confederacy—so-called—pitied the sorrows of the poor soldiers—talked dolorously about the distresses of their families at home—urged them to stay and fight it out—but urged them in such a sly way, that they thought I meant to encourage them to desert. They did so, by thousands and thousands. Every deserter, and all his family, would become my friends—and soon I had a great army in the woods—all for me to a man.

But it was no go. Zeb beat my sh——t t——l off—36,000 majority! Whew!—That was enough to make a saint swear. I was mad—and I did swear terribly. I did'nt care a ——— what happened after that.

Col. Well, well. It is raythar a big story. Cut it off and let's "get shut" of it. What happened?

X. P. G.—Benning's Brigade happened—thank God for it!—to come along, just in the nick of time—and made my fortune! I had played my last card—and lost—shamefully lost all. God bless Benning's Brigade, I say!

Col.—What did it do, Governor!

X. P. G.—Do!—It did wonders. It made me a Governor—almost a Foreign Minister. It made me a Grand Turk of the Unicorns—heroes of America!—composed of multitudinous Leagues of intelligent patriotic niggers, with a sprinkling of mean whites—so called. It made me Chairman of the grand Radical purifying State Committee. It gave me U. S. Federal printing to the tune of five thousand a year clear profits—and upwards—pickings and stealings included. How do you think that renegade Goodloe feels, when he knows that—and is obliged to send me his advertisements—and to pay me for them, too!

Col.—For Heaven's sake hold in. You are garrulous as your grand father—or any old woman. But how did Benning's Brigade make your fortune?

X. P. G.—I was in the mud—down—down—despised and scoffed at by every Confederate whipper-snapper in the State. That Brigade, Sir, lifted me out of the mud,—and put in my place a few old stinking types which they gathered up permiskuously, and tumbled into the mud hole I had just left—and stirred them about with their old bayonets.

Col.—And where were you when your types were put into pie? Did'nt you "fight it out on that line?" Did you boldly stand up for your rights?

X. P. G.—Come, come, gentlemen! no more. Let us be to each others' faults a little blind"—as the poet saith. Let us have bowels, and not press each other too hard. I am excited now. When my nerves are composed, I may give you an inkling of how that chuckling rascal Zeb Vance served me. But enough, now. Let us unite in a triangular—smile, by way of comforting ourselves—and then go to roost.

Font.—D'accord. Trinquons—et donc allons du lit.

(They clink glasses, hide the whiskey, &c.)

SOUND DOCTRINE FROM A RADICAL PAPER.—The New York Evening Post makes the following remarks upon a point that has lately caused much thought in this country:

"The independence and rights of the States are as absolutely essential to its harmonious working as the supremacy, in certain respects, of the Federal power. Without the independence of the States, indeed, there would be no security for individual rights. Popular liberty is only upheld and made practicable by local self-government. Forty millions of people, which there soon will be within our borders, cannot be controlled from a single centre—or will be controlled as France is controlled—by successive revolutionary juntas, ending in the strong man with the sword. Call such a government by what name you will—empire, monarchy, republic, or commonwealth—it is ever at heart the same despotism. It cannot be otherwise. A power so inordinate as that which would be required to govern the United States from Maine to Texas, from Sitka to Florida, with their manifold, intricate, diverse, and cumbersome interests, could only be wielded on the military principle. All civil life would perish in it, either run into anarchy, or be crushed by the iron hand of force."

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

GRAND CONSERVATIVE RALLY!

The Conservative meeting at the Court House, on Saturday night, was kept up until a late hour, and was one of the finest and most enthusiastic ever held in this City. In numbers it was very large,—in spirit excellent.

Of course, on account of the hour at which our paper goes to press, we can do no more than barely refer to this meeting in this issue. We shall endeavor to do full justice to the occasion to-morrow.

The meeting declined to recommend any persons as candidates for the Convention, but, relying upon the nomination of true, sound, conservative men, pledged itself to their cordial support, irrespective of personal predilections.

Judge Merrimon spoke with great ability for upwards of two hours to the audience, who listened with unwearied patience. His effort was an eloquent and powerful one, and produced a profound impression.

TO THE FRIENDS OF THE SENTINEL.

The excessive scarcity of money, and the large weekly cash expenses of the Sentinel, oblige us to urge upon those who are indebted to this office, to remit to us, at once, at least a portion of what is due. Subscribers and advertisers who cannot find it convenient to pay for a year or six months, or the whole amount, would do well to send subscriptions for less time, &c.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—R. H. Cowan & Co., General Commission and Shipping Merchants, and Wholesale Grocers, &c., 32 North Water Street, Wilmington: A new and energetic firm, who will promptly attend to all business entrusted to them.

Labor-Saving Pump, and everything desirable for Planters and Mechanics: Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

Nice North Carolina Bacon Sides and Hams: B. P. Williamson & Co.

Brown's Bronchial Troches: An invaluable remedy for Coughs, Colds, Throat diseases, &c. Sold everywhere.

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVAL.—General L. Thomas, Adjutant General U. S. A., was in this City, on Saturday, at the Yarborough House.

DEATH OF MAJ. W. F. COLLINS.—We regret to learn that this gentleman died at his residence, at Ridgway, on Saturday. Major Collins was a public-spirited and kind-hearted citizen, and was well-known throughout the State,—having served for years as Public Comptroller and for some time as Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of N. C.

His funeral will take place in this City, this afternoon, upon the arrival of the Weldon train.

MASONIC NOTICE.—The remains of the late Maj. Wm. F. Collins, Past Grand Master, will reach this city this (Monday) afternoon at 3½ o'clock.

The members of the Masonic fraternity are requested to meet at the Masonic Hall at 2 o'clock precisely.

The remains will be conveyed immediately from the Central Depot to the city cemetery for interment.

R. W. BEST,
D. G. M.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING AT AUBURN.—A meeting of the Conservatives of Auburn was held on Saturday. Proceedings in our next. Delegates were appointed to the County Convention, and the following preference for candidates expressed, viz: Hon. D. G. Fowle, W. J. Busbee, Esq., Rev. B. T. Blake, and J. J. Overby, Esq. Cols. Russ and Faribault made capital speeches.

ROBBERY.—We learn that, on the night of the 24th., as Mr. Geo. W. McCade, of Johnston County, was returning from this City to his home in that County, after having made some valuable purchases for himself and neighbors, which were stowed away in his cart, he was set upon by two negroes and robbed of everything he had. Among the articles stolen were a box of crockery, valued at nearly $100, a sack of flour, some meat, shoes, calico, &c.

On Friday, B. J. Perkinson, Esq., living about six miles from Raleigh on the Smithfield road, having his suspicions excited, arrested two negroes in the neighborhood, found the property and recovered the whole of it. In his capacity as magistrate, he had them before him and ordered their committal to jail. They were brought to this City, and, we learn, bailed for their appearance at the next term of our Court.

GENERAL SHERMAN'S OPINION OF THE REVOLUTIONISTS.

[Washington (Oct. 22) correspondence of the Boston Post.]

While those who profess to set "outside of the constitution" are digesting President Johnson's declaration that he will resist any attempt to suspend or degrade him before trial and conviction, I will add, upon reliable authority, the declaration of General Sherman that such an attempt would be clearly revolutionary, and should be resisted by the President with all the means within his control. This declaration, made to those who had a right to know his views, may have suggested the propriety of his return here to assume the command of the Department of Washington, which includes Maryland and Delaware. Such, also, was the substance of an opinion expressed by General Grant when approached on the subject during the last session of Congress by the chairman of the House Military Committee. Mr. Schenck declared to his friends that before taking any extreme action in the premises the opinion of General Grant should be obtained, and he volunteered to procure it. When the subject was mentioned General Grant promptly responded, in substance, that any attempt to suspend the President before trial and conviction, would be in violation of the constitution. This reply of the Commanding General arrested any further proceedings at the time. It may be well in this connection to repeat that President Johnson will hold ready obedience should the House of Representatives impeach and the Senate convict him as required by the forms of the constitution.

THE NOVEMBER ELECTIONS.

The elections to be held on the first Tuesday of November in the States of New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Kansas and Maryland, may be influenced in a very peculiar way according to the doctrine of contraries. For instance, it is notorious that in the States in which General Sheridan has been making his peregrinations with a radical escort the elections went against the radicals on the 8th of October. It will be a good thing if Sheridan, together with Old Ben Wade, Chief Justice Chase and all the other radical stumpers, were to make a journey through the States where elections are to come off next month. That would settle the business for the party and might revolutionize all these States to democracy. They should pack up their valises and start at once, for there need be no solicitude about the results of the elections after their wanderings and ovations.—N. Y. Herald.

FROM MASSACHUSETTS—THE ELECTION CAMPAIGN IN THE STATE—THE LICENSE MEN AHEAD.

BOSTON, October 25.—Massachusetts politics have come nearer to a focus to-night than at any other time during the campaign. Senatorial and representative caucuses have been held all over the State since the beginning of the week, and in spite of despondent anticipations the license law men have thus far gained the power. Both the prohibitionists and the advocates of license are working sharply, expending money freely, and giving an air of excitement to the canvass. Both parties are loud in boasting of their gains. The favorites of prohibition as well as those of license are confident of controlling both House and Senate in the next legislative body. So far as conventions and caucuses have been held, the results are decidedly in favor of the license men.

GEORGIA POLITICS.

AUGUSTA, GA., October 25.—The Republicans have nominated five whites and two blacks for the eighteenth senatorial district. The party seem confident of carrying the convention question. The Conservatives, or anti-conventionists, seem to favor the policy of neither voting for or against the convention, but to vote only for delegates. Several papers advocate this line of action, while others strongly urge the people to keep away from the polls and take no part in the election.

The Navy Department has published as a general order the charges, specifications, findings and sentence in the case of Second Assistant Engineer George F. Sawyer, who was found guilty of using language disrespectful to the President of the United States. The reprimand of the Secretary, published in accordance with the sentence of the court, is very severe, and states, in conclusion, the following:

"Whatever latitude of denunciation or abuse civilians may choose to indulge in with regard to the authorities of the Government, officers of the Navy can claim no such privilege, even under the plea that they have a right to express their opinions on political subjects. Such license is utterly incompatible with the existence of military discipline, and at the same time is unnecessary to the most perfect freedom of opinion either in politics or religion. A naval officer should be a gentleman in language and deportment. Good sense and good breeding will always enable any individual to express his opinions without giving just cause of offence, and the officer who cannot do so is as much deficient in those qualities as he is to a sense of military duty when he treats his superior with disrespect."

SUCH IS "reconstruction" in Virginia—a black carnival of license, ushered in by fraud, violence and meditated murder, until things have now come to such a pass, that in the capital of the State which gave us Washington, Jefferson, and Madison, the cry of those demoralized blacks is not merely for the property of the whites, and the blood of those of their own race who vote independently, but for that, also, of the Northern resident who refuses to endorse their Jacobin projects. Against these last Hunnicutt gives the sign, and the faithful pack echo the cry, "Kill the d——Yankee; kill him; shoot him!" and the words were at once followed by an effort of the mob to accomplish their murderous purpose.

Here we behold the first fruits of the "Congressional policy" of reconstruction.—No State has been, so far, restored to the Union; but a class of heretofore orderly and peaceful laborers have been transformed into savages athirst for blood and rapine.—White men of America, how long will you stand it?—Nat. Intel.

When Senator Guthrie was Secretary of the Treasury, he sent a letter to a friend in Baltimore. The next morning the person addressed appeared in the department and handed back the missive. "Mr. Guthrie," said he, "I can't make out one word of your letter but the signature, so I have brought it for you to translate." The Secretary knitted his brows, and puzzled over it for some minutes. At last he gave it up.—"Hang me, if I can read it either! I have forgotten its exact contents, but I know what I wanted to see you about. Sit down and I'll tell you."

CONSERVATIVE REWARD.—A correspondent in King William county informs us that but one negro in that whole county voted against the Convention and in favor of the Conservative candidate, Col. Wm. R. Aylett. The name of this negro is Thomas Ruffin, and the citizens of King William have united in a subscription to purchase a piece of land and give it to this man for a home in the county as his own. This is well done—Rich. Examiner.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Saturday Evening Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 M.

It is stated that the Government has agreed to part with its interest in the New Orleans and Carrollton Railroad, to Gen. Beauregard and others, for $280,000.

A new panel of 26 white jurors has been drawn to try Surratt.

Gov. Austin, of Honduras, has been removed by the British Government for giving Crown lands to Southern Emigrants.

The Haytian rebellion is suppressed

The correspondence relative to the Nashville election will be published on Monday. Gen. Grant instructed Thomas, that his duty was to prevent collisions. If Brownlow should issue a proclamation declaring an insurrection or invasion to exist which was too formidable for the forces at his command, and called upon the U. S. for aid, it should be given. His mission was to preserve peace and not to take sides in the political conflict, until called upon according to the laws. He was to prevent mobs from aiding either party, and if called upon legally to interfere his duty was plain.

THE VIRGINIA ELECTIONS—NEGRO IMPUDENCE.

RICHMOND, Oct. 26—P. M.

Official returns of the late election indicate the election of 30 Conservatives and 60 Radicals. Eighteen of the latter were colored men. Sixty-five Counties give 70,177 for, and 44,925 against a Convention. A number of Counties are yet to be heard from. The polls closed in Richmond at 1 o'clock Thursday morning, with a majority of 406 for the Hunnicutt ticket.

J. H. Gilmer, a prominent lawyer of Richmond, has filed with Schofield a formal protest against the counting of votes received after sunset Wednesday. He holds that the clause of the supplemental bill, which provides that 30 days public notice shall be given of the time of holding elections, limits the General to the time designated in his order. He also urges that the shameless frauds and the cowering of the Conservative voters were caused by the colored police in the employ of Colonel Rose, the Superintendent of the election.

Considerable excitement exists, caused by the fact that two citizens of Richmond - one a prominent tobacco manufacturer - have been ordered, by a vigilance committee of colored men, to leave the city in forty-eight hours. Their offense was a violent opposition to the Radical ticket.

From Physicians.

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Tertiary Syphilis, (one a terrible case of eight years' standing,) in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
A. D. NOBLES, M. D.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—(one tumor reached a large size.) The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis.

JAMES WILLIS.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

W. A. DARDEN, Sr.
Wilson, May 11th, 1867.

Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nearly two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glossy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis as a tonic—which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually cease d, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. R. ANN SMITH.

Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases.

Salt Rheum Cured! Remarkable Cure!!

DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson, N. C.:

My Dear Sir—For the last ten years (until recently) I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have visited several celebrated Springs—spent thousand of dollars—and failed to get any relief. In December 1866, being in Charleston S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad letter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassidey, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.

Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?

Your sincere friend,
W. T. SELTZER.

Major John W. Dunham, one of the editors of the Wilson "North Carolinian," says in the issue of the 26th April, 1867: "I believe from personal experience, that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

DAILY SENTINEL.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1867.

SORROW.

Upon my lips she laid her touch divine,
And merry speech and careless laughter died.
She fixed her melancholy eyes on mine,
And would not be denied.

I saw the West Wind blow his cloudlets white,
In flocks, careering through the April sky;
I could not sing, though joy was at its height,
For she stood silent by.

I watched the lovely even ng fade away—
A mist was lightly drawn across the stars,
She broke my quiet dreams, I heard her say
"Behold your prison bars!

"Earth's gladness shall not satisfy your soul,
This beauty of the world in which you live;
T e crowning grace that sanctifies the whole,
That I alone can give."

I heard and shrank away from her afraid,
But still she held me and would still abide,
Youth's bounding pulses slackened and obeyed,
With slowly ebbing tide.

"Look thou beyond the evening sky," she said,
"Beyond the changing splendors of the day;
Accept the pain, the weariness, the dread,
Accept and bid me stay!"

I turned and clasped her close with sudden strength.
And slowly, sweetly I became aware
Within my arms God's angel stood at length,
White robed and calm and fair.

And now I look beyond the evening star,
Beyond the changing splendors of the day,
Knowing the pain he sends more precious far,
More beautiful than they.

From the N. O. Crescent

ONE WAY TO RULE A HUSBAND.

A few evenings since as Nellie T., Mary W. and myself were chatting over a cup of tea, and, woman-like, discussing the merits and demerits of our friends, Annette Gray came running in, and drawing up a chair to the table, sank into it, pouting with laughter. As soon as she could speak, looking into our astonished faces she said:

"Oh, I'm not suddenly crazed, I'm only laughing at a ridiculous story Sallie H. has just been telling me. By the way, Neil, did you ever try a fit of hysterics on John to gain your point in any matter in dispute between you? 'All's fair in war,' and woman, as the weaker vessel, has the right to resort to stratagem to gain the mastery when she is struggling for it. At least so says Sallie. You know Sallie went out of town last week to see her aunt, and while there had a sample of ruling a husband by a fit of hysterics, which seems to have given her a new wrinkle in domestic management, and I rather think Phil. will have a chance to see its workings the first time he is guilty of any shortcomings. I'll tell you the tale as she told it to me, and you can form your opinions as to its merits.

"It seems Sallie's aunt had made up her mind to have a new carriage, no common one either, but a handsome double carriage, silver mounted harness, with her favorite park green linings, etc., while Mr. S., her husband, had as fully made up his mind that he could not afford it, and had very decidedly said "No" to all appeals, coaxings, etc. But Mrs. S. is no ordinary woman; with her, to wish is to have, or there must be a very good reason why. So, it was carriage for breakfast, carriage for supper. Mr. S. went to sleep to the word "carriage," and got up hearing it repeated in his ear. But all to no avail, he would be blind, deaf and dumb, if he chose, and was so to all said on that subject. But then, Cæsar had his Brutus, Napoleon his Wellington; all great men have fallen before some enemy, and there was a weapon preparing for him, of which he knew nothing, and before which he fell to rise no more."

"One evening, while sitting in the parlor, Sallie, as usual, dawdling, Mr. S. appearing deep in the Weekly Crescent, Mrs. S. commenced running through the whole scale of the delights, comforts and conveniences of a new carriage, without one response, yes or nay, from her liege lord. All at once up she started, with a shriek that would have raised the dead and darted from the room.

"Startled almost into fits themselves, Mr S. and Sallie ran after her. She was apparently making her way through the grounds. Mr. S. overtook her, but she struggled and resisted so that it was all he and Sallie could do to overcome her, and get her into the house.

"Taking her into her room, and laying her on the bed, they rubbed her hands, bathed her head and face, and tried in every way to soothe and calm her excitement, without success; she did not seem to recognize either of them, and struggled and moaned, and went off into faints, and I don't know what.

"The nearest physician living some three miles away, her frightened husband was afraid to leave her to go after him, and the servants, as usual, these times, when wanted were not to be found. After some half hour's hard work with her, a loud hallea at the gate induced Mr. S. to go out, in the hope of getting the person who called to ride over for the doctor. No sooner had he left the room—Mrs. S. apparently in a fainting fit at the time—than she opened her eyes slyly and looking around said, 'has he gone?' Poor Sallie was perfectly dumbstricken, when her aunt, raising up on the bed, said: 'It that don't bring the carriage I'll give it up, Sallie.' Here the sound of his returning footsteps warned her, and leaning back on the pillow Mr. S. found her as he left her, in a dead faint, from which she only revived to go into the 'jerks.'

"Sallie looked at the distressed face of her uncle as he soothed and caressed his wife, telling her 'only to get well, darling, and you shall have everything you want,' while the wife lay apparently unconscious of all he said; and making an excuse to get out of the room, Sallie ran down stairs and into the yard, and fairly rolled on the grass in convulsions of laughter.

"Poor Mr. S. sat up with his wife all night, and the next day sat by her bedside and wrote a long letter to his merchant, with full descriptions of carriage, lining, silver-mounted harness, etc. What do you think of that, now? Hurrah for hysterics!"

Greeley don't agree with "sundry journals" which insist that the results of recent elections insure the nomination of General Grant as the Republican candidate for next President. In this connection he tells the following story:

"A day or two after Gov. Seward's inauguration, (Jan. 1, 1839,) we were sitting with the Hon. Francis Granger in the editor's room of the Albany Evening Journal, when a young gentleman just appointed something or other on the Governor's staff walked into the room in all the bravery of a bran-new uniform and epaulettes, took several turns athwart the room, and walked out again. Mr. Granger watched his stride admiringly, and, when he had departed, turned to us with a merry twinkle in his eyes as he amiably remarked: "There! I have wondered for what I have been toiling, sweating and worrying in political strife these twenty years; but now I see—it was to make that young man feel as well as he does to-day."

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 18, 1867.

General Orders No. 101.

By the terms of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed Mar h 2d, 1867 and of the Acts of March 23d, and July 19th, 1867, supplementary thereto,—It is made the duty of the Commanding General of this Military District to cause a registration to be made of the male inhabitants of the State of North Carolina, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards and qualified by the terms of said Acts to vote, and after such registration is complete, to order an election to be held at which the registered voters of said state shall vote for or against a Convention, for the purpose of establishing a Constitution and civil government for the said State, loyal to the Union, and for delegates to said Convention—and to give at least thirty days' notice of the time and place at which said election shall be held; and the said registration having been completed in the State of North Carolina, It is ordered:

First, That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 19th day of November, 1867, and ending on Wednesday, the 20th day of November, 1867, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For a Convention," or "Against a Convention," and for delegates to constitute the Convention—in case a majority of the votes given on that question, shall be for a Convention, and in case a majority of the registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such Convention.

Second It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days the registration lists, and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered to strike the name of such person from the list; and such person shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such registers the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts—who have not already been registered.

Third, In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists the Boards will be guided by the law of March 23, 1867, and the laws supplementary thereto and their attention is specially directed to the Supplementary Act of July 19th, 1867.

Fourth, All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performances of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Fifth, The polls shall be opened at such voting places at eight o'clock in the forenoon and closed at four in the afternoon, of ea h day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election as a delegate to the Convention shall serve as a Judge of the election in any County or District which he seeks to represent.

Eighth, The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of elections, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the sheriff of the County is empowered to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers, to the other polling places, as may, in his judgment, best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Ninth, Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited, and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of elections to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority.

Tenth. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from 6 o'clock of the evening of the 18th of November, until 6 o'clock of the morning of the 21st of November, 1867, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Eleventh. Military interference with elections "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25th, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Twelfth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Thirteenth. The number of delegates to the Convention is determined by law and is the number of members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature for the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and this number, one hundred and twenty, is apportioned to the representative Districts of the State in the ratio of registered voters as follows:

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD
AND
NORTH CAROLINA
GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN ROADS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $250,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

For information about shipping, apply to Messrs;
WHEDBEE & DICKINSON, Baltimore,
COCHRAN, RUSSELL & CO., Philadelphia,

Notice to Shippers of Freight.

THE SEABOARD INLAND AIR LINE
Via Portsmouth, Va.,

IS THE ONLY DIRECT LINE BETWEEN Boston New York Philadelphia, Baltimore and the Carolinas.

It is express in point of speed and safety of Freights, being from

FORTY TO SEVENTY HOURS

in advance of all other lines, and at as low rates.

It offers daily communication with Baltimore, daily communication with Philadelphia.

Five Steamers each week to and from New York.

Two Steamers each week to and from Boston.

It is the only line having these advantages, and by which there is but one handling of freight.

Cars are loaded at the wharves in Portsmouth and are run through to destination.

Be careful to direct your Consignors to ship only

From Baltimore, by the Norfolk or Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock.

From Philadelphia by the Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, or by Clyde's Line, 14 South Delaware Avenue.

From New York by the Old Dominion Steamship Line, Pier 37 North River.

From Boston, by the Norfolk Steamship Line, end of Central Wharf.

THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD, THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH, TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD, UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY SAY VIA. R. & G. R. R!

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press work at Mr P. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement, and more. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.

W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.

THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.

D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it do s better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper

J. R. CUREY,
Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a Screw.

PETER E. SMITH,

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit

RICHARD H. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former member of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is we simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it It is well adapted to

WATER POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 3 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; highest point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.

Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.

The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.

The Inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge

$25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

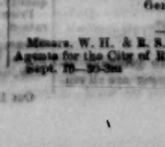
THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine



IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAG RATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause. You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good ones in Europe and America will testify.

I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.
